How to complain

saha complaints

saha aims to provide a high standard of service to its customers. However, if we get it wrong we want to know about it and will try to put things right. We welcome your complaints as we are keen to learn lessons when things go wrong.

How can complaints be made?

saha will accept complaints in whichever way you choose to make them. This can be verbally, in writing by post, fax, text or e-mail. Please ring Customer Services Centre on 0800 970 6363, or write to us on the address on the back of the leaflet.

If you prefer a Customer Services Assistant will complete the complaints form when you ring by just asking you a number of questions.

When making a complaint you may wish a relative, friend or support worker to speak on your behalf, if so, please let us know the name of the person at the time of making your complaint.

Sometimes a complaint may be about something we cannot change for example, the service charges are set in consultation with residents and approved by Board. These could not be altered within the same financial year however in these circumstances we would give a full explanation to you. A failure of a system that results in a repair does not constitute a complaint, however a failure in saha's response may constitute a complaint.

What is the process?

Stage 1

We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within one working day. Your complaint will be given a reference number and passed to a senior manager. He/She will ensure your complaint is thoroughly investigated and will respond to you within 15 working days. If the senior manager needs longer than ten days to investigate your complaint they will contact you to set an alternative target date.

If you are not satisfied with the response you can progress to stage two by contacting saha Customer Services on 0800 970 6363.

Stage 2

Your complaint will be passed to a Director. The Director will look again at your complaint and go over the investigation, conclusion and response. He/She will review your complaint and the response to it. You will receive a response within 15 working days. If the Director needs longer than 15 days to investigate your complaint they will contact you to set a new target date.

Stage 3

If you remain unhappy with the response a complaints panel will consider your complaint. You will be invited to a panel hearing. You, or your representative can attend and present your complaint in person; alternatively, the meeting can go ahead without you being present. The panel, which includes a Resident Representative will consider the investigations, conclusions and responses from stages one and two and any other relevant information. You will be notified in writing of the panel's decision about your complaint within ten working days of the meeting.

Designated person and the Housing Ombudsman Service

Designated Person

If the landlord cannot put things right, the next step is contact an MP, a local councillor or tenant panel – these are the three types of designated person.

Designated persons are there to help to resolve disputes between tenants and their landlords. They can do this in whatever way they think is most likely to work.

If the designated person cannot help they can refer a complaint to the ombudsman.

Complaints to the Ombudsman do not have to be referred by a designated person, but if they are not there must be at least 8 weeks from the end of the landlord's complaint process before the Ombudsman can consider the case.

The Housing Ombudsman will only investigate your complaint if you have gone through the previous two stages.
