Introduction

The Cowan Fund for Personal Development provides financial assistance to Residents, particularly with the costs associated with training and employment opportunities.

With this fund Saha is able to assist with the personal development and initiatives of its residents.

We acknowledge our gratitude to Andrew Cowan who has personally donated and raised funds to support us in this endeavour.

Information

The Cowan Fund can be applied for to assist with:

- Residents travel costs associated with a job, work placement or training interview
- Clothing for a job, work placement or training interview
- Other reasonable costs related to training, work placement, apprenticeship or job
- Costs up to a maximum sum of £250 (per annum)
- Training opportunities up to a value of £500 (per annum) per person where funding cannot be secured through any other channels.

Please note this list is not exhaustive.

Who Can Apply

To be eligible for a grant through The Cowan Fund applicants should consider the following:

- Are you a current Saha resident?
- Do you have outstanding tenancy/rent issues? (These maybe taken into account)
- Are you willing to discuss your financial circumstances with a member of staff
- You can only be awarded a grant once a year

How to apply
